

unique hand-made structures are over 150 years old and have been superbly restored and refurbished, providing the villa with a sense of timeless stateliness and majesty.

The dedication that has gone into crafting this magnificent villa can also be seen in the tasteful artworks and antiques which have been obtained from all over Asia and even as far afield as Russia. These, along with plush sofas, ornate chandeliers and oriental rugs, give each space in the villa a sumptuous opulence. Also boasting modern conveniences such as its state-of-the-art kitchen, coffee machines, flat-screen televisions and Bose music system, the villa offers a perfect blend of old and new.

Villa Kudus offers guests space aplenty to relax as you chose either in private or when coming together socially; be it on a lounge by the pool, in a shaded spot in the garden, being treated to a massage at the poolside balé or dining alfresco under the stars. 'Wherever guests chose to unwind, the villa's attentive and friendly staff will be there to take care of their every need.

This luxurious villa is particularly suitable for people who are looking for a relaxing fully serviced private holiday in a serene environment and surrounded by fine art.
